in the county in which the person is incarcerated.

(b) An incarcerated person may file only one (1) petition under this chapter during the incarcerated person's lifetime.

(c) The office of the prosecuting attorney located in the county in which the incarcerated person is incarcerated shall represent the interests of the state at a hearing under this chapter.

Sec. 4. A petition filed under this chapter must be verified and include the following:

(1) A certified copy of the order that imposed the sentence described in section 2 of this chapter.

(2) An affidavit signed by the incarcerated person indicating that the incarcerated person freely and voluntarily waives the incarcerated person's right to:

(A) have a public and speedy trial by jury in which the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the incarcerated person committed murder;

(B) confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses at a trial described in clause (A);

(C) have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in a trial described in clause (A);

(D) have the state prove beyond a reasonable doubt the presence of at least one (1) aggravating circumstance described in IC 35-50-2-9(b) in the sentencing phase of a trial described in clause (A);

(E) have the state prove a mitigating circumstance or circumstances described in IC 35-50-2-9(c) are outweighed by an aggravating circumstance or circumstances described in IC 35-50-2-9(b) in the sentencing phase of a trial described in clause (A); and

(F) have a jury determine whether the imposition of a death sentence is appropriate in the sentencing phase of a trial described in clause (A).

(3) A statement by the incarcerated person of:

(A) each instance in which the incarcerated person was diagnosed as having a mental illness by; and

(B) treatments received by the incarcerated person for a mental illness from;

a mental health service provider (as defined in IC 34-6-2-80).

(4) A copy of the incarcerated person's conduct record while committed to a penal facility for execution of the sentence described in section 2 of this chapter.

(5) A statement by the incarcerated person explaining why the incarcerated person requests the imposition of a death sentence.

Sec. 5. (a) Upon receipt of a petition filed under section 3 of this chapter, a court shall:

(1) set the matter for a hearing; and

(2) appoint a competent, disinterested:

(A) psychiatrist; or

(B) psychologist endorsed by the Indiana state board of examiners in psychology as a health service provider in psychology.

(b) The psychiatrist or psychologist appointed under subsection (a) shall interview the incarcerated person and submit a written report to the court at least ten (10) days before a hearing under this chapter. The court shall provide copies of the report to the state and counsel for the incarcerated person.

(c) The report under subsection (b) must address:

(1) the incarcerated person's ability to understand the:

(A) nature of the proceedings; and

(B) effect of an order issued under section 7(a) of this chapter;

(2) whether the incarcerated person is a mentally retarded individual (as defined in IC 35-36-9-2);

(3) whether the incarcerated person is mentally ill;

(4) what treatment, if any, the incarcerated person is receiving or has received for a mental illness;

(5) whether the incarcerated person has attempted suicide; and

(6) other matters the psychiatrist or psychologist determines are germane to the ability of the incarcerated person to rationally elect a death sentence under this chapter.

(d) The psychiatrist or psychologist appointed under subsection (a) must be present and available to testify at a hearing under this chapter.

(e) A report submitted under subsection (b) shall be admitted into evidence on request of the state or counsel for the incarcerated person.

Sec. 6. (a) An incarcerated person who:

(1) files a petition; or

(2) elects to halt the execution of a death sentence under section 9 of this chapter; is entitled to be represented by counsel at a hearing under this chapter.

(b) The court shall appoint counsel to represent the incarcerated person if the incarcerated person is determined by the court to be indigent.

Sec. 7. (a) Subject to subsections (b) and (c), a court shall issue an order abrogating the sentence described in section 2 of this chapter and impose a death sentence following a hearing under this chapter if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the incarcerated person:

- (1) has freely and voluntarily elected a death sentence; and
- (2) understands the nature of the proceeding and the effect of an order imposing a death sentence.

(b) A court may not issue an order described in subsection (a) for a mentally retarded individual (as defined in IC 35-36-9-2).

(c) A court may not issue an order described in subsection (a) for a mentally ill person unless the court:

- (1) makes the findings required under subsection (a)(1) and (a)(2); and
- (2) finds by clear and convincing evidence that the incarcerated person has not elected a death sentence in part or in whole based on reasoning that is substantially impaired by the incarcerated person's mental illness.

A court may appoint additional psychiatrists or psychologists described in section 5 of this chapter to assist the court in making a determination under this subsection.

(d) A court that issues an order imposing a death sentence under this section must include in the order an execution date. The execution date must be at least one hundred (100) days after the date on which the order is issued by the court.

Sec. 8. A death sentence imposed by a court under this chapter shall be carried out as if an incarcerated person sentenced to death is a convicted person or a convicted female under IC 35-38-6. However, if an incarcerated person sentenced to death under this chapter escapes from custody before the date set for execution, the:

- (1) incarcerated person, on rearrest, may not be executed, as provided in IC 35-38-6-7; and
- (2) court shall issue an order abrogating the death sentence and reinstating the original sentence.

Sec. 9. (a) An incarcerated person against whom a death sentence is imposed under this chapter has a right to elect to halt the execution of the death sentence at any time.

(b) An election to halt the execution of a death sentence may be made orally or in writing.

(c) If an incarcerated person against whom a death sentence has been imposed under this chapter makes a clear and unambiguous election to halt the execution of the death sentence, the penal facility in which the incarcerated person is confined shall immediately:

- (1) suspend the execution of the death sentence; and
- (2) send written notification of the election to halt the execution to the court that imposed the death sentence under this chapter.

(d) The court that imposed the death sentence under this chapter shall set the matter for a hearing not later than thirty (30) days after receipt of a notice under subsection (c). The court shall issue an order abrogating the death sentence and reinstating the original sentence following a hearing if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the incarcerated person:

- (1) freely and voluntarily elected to halt the execution of the death sentence; and
- (2) understood the effect of the election to halt the execution at the time it was made.

(e) The court shall vacate the suspension of the death sentence under subsection (c)(1) and affirm the original death sentence order if the court, following the hearing, does not make the findings under subsection (d)(1) and (d)(2). If the court affirms the original death sentence, the incarcerated person shall be executed:

- (1) on the date established under section 7(d) of this chapter, if the affirmation of the original death is entered by the court at least ten (10) days before the date established under section 7(d) of this chapter; or
- (2) at least thirty (30) days after the order affirming the death sentence is entered, if the affirmation of the original death sentence is entered less than ten (10) days before the date established under section 7(d) of this chapter.

(f) An election by an incarcerated person to halt the execution of a death sentence after the death sentence is affirmed under subsection (e) shall be resolved as set forth in this section.
